

Indiana's telephone privacy law is a great law, prior to this law every evening we received many, many unwanted phone calls, now it is great - please do not do anything to lessen what is a very good working law in Indiana.